

Free Audio/Net Training: Self-Direction in Mental Health

Sponsored by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)

WHEN: Thursday, November 6, 2008, 3:00 PM - 4:30 PM (ET)

GOAL: Learn about self-directed care in mental health:

- What is it?
- How does it work?
- What are its benefits?
- What Medicaid options can be used to fund it?

SPEAKERS:

Moderator: Robert Glover, PhD
National Association of State Mental Health Program Directors

TBD, Florida
Perspectives from a State Mental Health Representative

TBD, Florida
Perspectives from a Consumer who has used self-directed care

Marguerite Schervish, J.D., Health Insurance Specialist, CMS
Overview of self directed care; State plan Personal Care Services benefit; and Section 1915(j) Self-directed Personal Assistance Services State plan option

Kathy Poisal, Health Insurance Specialist, CMS
Section 1915(c) Home and Community Based Services waiver and Section
1915(i) Home and Community Based Services State plan option

TO REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT:

Participant Access Information

Go to URL:

https://www.mymeetings.com/emeet/rsvp/index.jsp?customHeader=mymeetings&Conference_ID=1095841&passcode=1673322

Choose “Web RSVP” under “Participant Join” and enter:

CONFERENCE NUMBER: 1095841

PASSCODE: 1673322

Provide your information for the event leader and then click “Submit”

For more information, contact Vanessa Landau at vanessa.landau@samhsa.hhs.gov or call 240-276-1832