

The National Association of PASRR Professionals (NAPP)

is comprised of caring people who partner together to improve the quality of long term care for individuals with mental illness, developmental disabilities, and related conditions. We are the federal and state agency staff who develop and implement the programs. We are the social and human services groups that provide oversight and advocacy. We are the nurses, social workers, doctors, and other professionals who conduct the assessments. We are the hospital and nursing facility staff caring for residents. We are the counselors comforting people in need. We are individuals and families with long term care needs. We are NAPP — and with PASRR, we are improving long term care.

The goal of NAPP is to provide leadership, education, resources and empowerment to and for all members, so that each member is offered support in planning, implementing, advocating for, and improving the quality of PASRR functions and services within their own states to ultimately benefit residents with mental illness, developmental disabilities and related conditions who reside in nursing facilities and alternative settings.
